" An Israeli perspective upon selected issues regarding the recent Israeli – Hezbollah war:

An outline of the Israeli view upon the use of force in self defence and the following debate in the international media regarding the principle of distinction and proportionality in attack.

Particularly interesting it would be further to discuss:

Different aspects of targeting issues, including the policy of "targeted killings" of suspected terrorists, along with the question of capturing leaders and alleged members of terrorist organizations in the occupied territories and abroad (Lebanon). Do human rights and/or humanitarian law (the law of armed conflict) standards apply? Hereunder: Can it be seen as law enforcement or an act of self defence?"

For deltagelse, vennligst gi beskjed til oberstløytnant Terje Torsteinson ved avdeling for Militærmakt innen 19. september. Vel møtt!
